NOTES	What is your tolerance for messiness? In your home? The office? A closet? Your garage?
	What areas in your life do you keep tidy and in what others do you just embrace the messiness?
	When it comes to spiritual growth, should it be messy, or clean and tidy? What determines this for you?
	Are you more of a rule follower or do you have more permissive style?  How do you think that particular bent developed in you?
	What is the difference between justification , sanctification , and glorification ? Discuss the difference between these three aspects of the spiritual transformation process.
	Which of these three is required for baptism? Explain your response.
	If you were invited in, how would you help someone in their sanctification process?
	What would be your responsibility in this process? What responsibilities would it be important for you to reject, keeping it squarely on the shoulders for whom it belongs?
	Married couples:  Discuss this statement, "What if God created marriage to make you Holy rather than happy?" (Sacred Marriage - Gary Thomas)
	How can marriage be used by God in the justification and sanctification process?

Looking back at your notes from this week's message, was there anything you heard for the first time, stuck with you, challenged or confused you?

What is the one important thing you will take away from this weekend's message or our community group discussion? Is there any challenge, difficulty or praise that you would like to share with the group for prayer?
